

Welcome to the Texas Glass Association

The Glass Professional Resource for Information, Education, Legislation and Representation.

Texas Glass Association | NGA Chapter

Texas Glass Association is made up of glass shop owners, management, suppliers and manufacturers. Our goal is to provide our members with information and education to promote safe, quality workmanship in the glass industry. With divisions in Houston and Dallas, TGA offers various local meeting opportunities and activities to help market your business. Joining TGA is a smart business decision!

Membership Perks

- All TGA members receive the programs and services of the National Glass Association ( www.glass.org ) at discounted pricing.
- Membership includes a valuable advertising feature. Your company information is listed in the Texas Glass Association website directory and the NGA Member Search Directory Section.
- Stay current with important glass industry training and trends with the TGA's Texas Glass Institute, and educational dinner meetings.
- Develop relationships to strengthen your business and increase your success with other member companies
- Members may participate in the Texas Mutual Worker Comp Insurance Program. Insured groups receive annual dividend payments.
- Belongs to the Texas Construction Association, a lobbying consortium for construction issues
- Be involved in the over 2000 hours of community outreach, and $11,000 of charitable fundraising.
- Largest Regional Glass Expo in the country, TGA's biannual TEXpo. Members receive FREE REGISTRATION to TEXpo and member rates to other functions.

Association Stats | Benefits

- Founded in 1948, the National Glass Association, proudly serving the Glass, Window and Door Industries, is the largest trade association representing all facets of the architectural and automotive glass industry in North America.
- The Texas Chapter is the Largest State Chapter of the National Glass Association.
- TGA's Divisions Houston and North Texas (Dallas) have regularly scheduled educational, informational meetings as well as social events, golf tournaments, casino parties, fishing tournaments and community service opportunities for members.
- Membership gives you NGA Member Pricing on Training, Certification and Testing Opportunities
- TGA is committed to NGA's Certification Program

The Texas Glass Association will help strengthen your business as together we pursue quality standards in our industry.